

REQUIREMENTS

General Requirements

To earn the GRI designation in North Carolina you must

- Complete the 90 hours, twelve required courses, within five (5) years. You do not have to take the courses in any particular order; you must just complete them all.
- Receive a passing grade of 70 or above for each course examination and you may not miss more than 15 minutes of any course.
- Hold membership in the National Association of REALTORS®.
- Complete the GRI Designation Application and pay the one-time fee of $25 (application will be mailed to you upon completion of last course).

You may make use of the GRI Designation on business cards, stationery, etc. only when you have completed all of the steps listed above.

Continuing Education

Most of the courses in the Realtor Institute are approved for continuing education credit. Each approved course will count as 4 hours of Elective continuing education credit.

POLICY

Attendance

Class will begin promptly at 8:30 a.m. NAR REALTOR® Institute Policies and Procedures requires that attendance be monitored and strictly enforced in order to obtain credit and, consequently, the GRI designation. Students may not miss more than 15 minutes per class. Students missing more than the allotted 15 minutes will be disqualified for credit of that particular class, and required to make it up.

Payment

Guarantee yourself a seat in the GRI course of your choice by emailing or faxing in your completed registration form with full tuition payment, information is provided on the form or registering online.

Cancellation & Refund

Cancellation requests (written or phoned) will be accepted through 5:00 p.m. 5 days preceding each class. All paid tuition other than the $25 service fee will be refunded. No refunds will be given for cancellations made after the close of business on that day. (Requests for refund consideration due to extenuating circumstances must be received in writing within 15 days after module start date.)

For more information, please Contact NC Association of REALTORS

- Ellie Edwards at eedwards@ncrealtors.org for REALTOR® Institute questions,
- Call (800) 443.9956 for additional education information.